

NFA CORPORATE OBJECTIVES

- To provide appropriate and adequate support to the integration and modernization of the systems and facilities of the food grains industry.
- To provide or cause the availability of marketing and technical services that will ensure food security and stable grains supply and prices; and
- To provide rice farmers with an assured market for their palay, and/or facilitate rice farmers' access to such markets.